Over the years, Copenhagen has earned the nickname Capital of Sustainable Meetings. In 2009, Copenhagen hosted the first ever eco-certified political summit, the United Nation's Climate Change Conference COP 15 attracting more than 30,000 people to the Danish capital. In 2012, Denmark played host to the most sustainable Presidency of the European Union, certified to ISO-20121 sustainable event management standards. Wonderful Copenhagen CVB played an active role in both of the above and was a founding partner in ICCA Scandinavia Sustainability Index. Copenhagen's sustainable portfolio is so comprehensive that it is easier to hold a sustainable event than a non-sustainable one. 71% of all Copenhagen hotel rooms hold an official eco-certification. Many of the city's convention venues are also certified, including the two largest venues Bella Center and Tivoli Congress Center and Wonderful Copenhagen CVB works actively to inspire the city's meetings industry to go green.

In addition to this, Copenhagen is the capital of a country that is listed in the absolute top of several rankings such as least corrupt country in the world accordingly to the transparency corruption perception index 2017. Furthermore, Denmark also have managed to rank top 3 according to The World Happiness Report 2018, ranks 2 in the Gender Inequality Index 2017 and are the number 1 most gay-friendly place on the planet according to Lonely Planet. Beside those fine listings Denmark are on a top 10 of the most prosperous countries according to the legatum prosperity index 2017 and Most peaceful country according to the Global Peace Index 2018 (GPI).

In Denmark we have high level of welfare and healthcare. For instance Danes don't pay for hospital or education, and even at university level, there is no tuition fee. In fact every danish student receives around 900$ per month from the state.

Copenhagen holds the world record for consumption of organic food/ 52% of all Copenhageners commute by bicycle every day/ and 71% of the city's hotel rooms are eco-certified. What's more, the city's meetings product is so green that the chances are your meeting will be sustainable, whether that was your aim or not! Copenhagen is known as one of the most environmentally friendly cities in the world aiming to become the world's first carbon neutral capital city in 2025. Copenhagen was the official European Green Capital in 2014, so organising a sustainable event here is no great challenge. We have certified experience in hosting state-of-the-art events with a sustainable profile. Copenhagen are also known for its clean water in the harbors inviting the locals to swim in the canals every summer, CNN rated Copenhagen as the world's best city for swimming in May 2018.

For more information
Contact: Mike Hansen (mha@woco.dk)

About the GDS-Index
The Global Destination Sustainability Index (GDS-Index) is a destination level programme that measures, benchmarks and improves the sustainability strategy and performance of meetings, events and business tourism destinations.

Criteria: The 2019 GDS-Index uses 70 indicators that evaluate the destinations across four key areas and against the UN Sustainable Development Goals:

Find out more about our methodology, criteria and data verification here
Ownership: The GDS-Index is not owned by any one organisation. It is operated as a multi-stakeholder partnership founded and endorsed by IMEX, MCI, the International Congress and Convention Association (ICCA) and European Cities Marketing. Gubi Consulting and Guy Bigwood is responsible for the management of the Secretariat. For more information.

Climate, Energy and Emissions
Waste
Air Quality
Water
Transportation
Green Areas
Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
Corruption
Social Progress
Transportation
Overtourism
Hotels
Airport
Agencies (PCOs & DMCs)
Restaurants
Venues
Destination Strategy
Policy & Certification
Governance
Staff Engagement & Capacity Building
Measurement and Reporting
Sales and Marketing
Client Support
Accessibility
Community Action & Collaboration
Supplier Performance Highlights

Over the years, Copenhagen has earned the nickname Capital of Sustainable Meetings. In 2009, Copenhagen hosted the first ever eco-certified political summit, the United Nation’s Climate Change Conference COP 15 attracting more than 30.000 people to the Danish capital. In 2012, Denmark played host to the most sustainable Presidency of the European Union, certified to ISO-20121 sustainable event management standards. Wonderful Copenhagen CVB played an active role in both of the above and was a founding partner in ICCA Scandinavia Sustainability Index. Copenhagen’s sustainable portfolio is so comprehensive that it is easier to hold a sustainable event than a non-sustainable one. 71% of all Copenhagen hotel rooms hold an official eco-certification. Many of the city’s convention venues are also certified, including the two largest venues Bella Center and Tivoli Congress Center and Wonderful Copenhagen CVB works actively to inspire the city’s meetings industry to go green.

Social Performance Highlights

In addition to this, Copenhagen is the capital of a country that is listed in the absolute top of several rankings such as least corrupt country in the world accordingly to the transparency corruption perception index 2017. Furthermore, Denmark also have managed to rank top 3 according to the The World Happiness Report 2018, ranks 2 in the Gender Inequality Index 2017 and are the number 1 most gay-friendly place on the planet according to Lonely Planet. Beside those fine listings Denmark are on a top 10 of the most prosperous countries according to the legatum prosperity index 2017 and Most peaceful country according to the Global Peace Index 2018 (GPI). In Denmark we have high level of welfare and healthcare. For instance Danes don’t pay for hospital or education, and even at university level, there is no tuition fee. In fact every danish student receives around 900$ per month from the state.
Environmental Performance Highlights

Copenhagen holds the world record for consumption of organic food/ 52% of all Copenhageners commute by bicycle every day/ and 71 % of the city’s hotel rooms are eco-certified. What's more, the city's meetings product is so green that the chances are your meeting will be sustainable, whether that was your aim or not! Copenhagen is known as one of the most environmentally friendly cities in the world aiming to become the world’s first carbon neutral capital city in 2025. Copenhagen was the official European Green Capital in 2014, so organising a sustainable event here is no great challenge. We have certified experience in hosting state-of-the-art events with a sustainable profile. Copenhagen are also known for its clean water in the harbors inviting the locals to swim in the canals every summer, CNN rated Copenhagen as the world’s best city for swimming in May 2018.
DMO Supplier Social Environmental Performance Overview (2017)

Total 82%

DMO Performance Highlights

Over the years, Copenhagen has earned the nickname Capital of Sustainable Meetings. In 2009, Copenhagen hosted the first ever eco-certified political summit, the United Nation's Climate Change Conference COP 15 attracting more than 30,000 people to the Danish capital. In 2012, Denmark played host to the most sustainable Presidency of the European Union, certified to ISO-20121 sustainable event management standards. Wonderful Copenhagen CVB played an active role in both of the above and was a founding partner in ICCA Scandinavia Sustainability Index. Copenhagen's sustainable portfolio is so comprehensive that it is easier to hold a sustainable event than a non-sustainable one. 71% of all Copenhagen hotel rooms hold an official eco-certification. Many of the city's convention venues are also certified, including the two largest venues Bella Center and Tivoli Congress Center and Wonderful Copenhagen CVB works actively to inspire the city's meetings industry to go green.

Social Performance Highlights

In addition to this, Copenhagen is the capital of a country that is listed in the absolute top of several rankings such as least corrupt country in the world accordingly to the transparency corruption perception index 2017. Furthermore, Denmark also have managed to rank top 3 according to the The World Happiness Report 2018, ranks 2 in the Gender Inequality Index 2017 and are the number 1 most gay-friendly place on the planet according to Lonely Planet. Beside those fine listings Denmark are on a top 10 of the most prosperous countries according to the legatum prosperity index 2017 and Most peaceful country according to the Global Peace Index 2018 (GPI).

In Denmark we have high level of welfare and healthcare. For instance Danes don't pay for hospital or education, and even at university level, there is no tuition fee. In fact every danish student receives around 900$ per month from the state.

Environmental Performance Highlights

Copenhagen holds the world record for consumption of organic food/ 52% of all Copenhageners commute by bicycle every day/ and 71% of the city's hotel rooms are eco-certified. What's more, the city's meetings product is so green that the chances are your meeting will be sustainable, whether that was your aim or not! Copenhagen is known as one of the most environmentally friendly cities in the world aiming to become the world's first carbon neutral capital city in 2025. Copenhagen was the official European Green Capital in 2014, so organising a sustainable event here is no great challenge. We have certified experience in hosting state-of-the-art events with a sustainable profile. Copenhagen are also known for its clean water in the harbors inviting the locals to swim in the canals every summer, CNN rated Copenhagen as the world's best city for swimming in May 2018.

For more information

Contact : Mike Hansen (mha@woco.dk)

About the GDS-Index

The Global Destination Sustainability Index (GDS-Index) is a destination level programme that measures, benchmarks and improves the sustainability strategy and performance of meetings, events and business tourism destinations. The mission of the programme is to engage, inspire and enable destinations to become more sustainable places to visit, meet in and thrive in.

Criteria : The 2019 GDS-Index uses 70 indicators that evaluate the destinations across four key areas and against the UN Sustainable Development Goals:

Find out more about our methodology, criteria and data verification here

Ownership : The GDS-Index is not owned by any one organisation. It is operated as a multi-stakeholder partnership founded and endorsed by IMEX, MCI, the International Congress and Convention Association (ICCA) and European Cities Marketing. Gubi Consulting and Guy Bigwood is responsible for the management of the Secretariat. For more information.